

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA VOLUNTEER POSITION LISTING

Position: Region Facilitator

The region facilitator is a primary connection between chapters and members and the services offered by Alpha Sigma Alpha. This volunteer serves as a resource on what is happening in her region and knows what the chapters in her region need through regular analysis of information and statistics. She communicates to the region volunteers the needs of the chapters so that they may respond and provide assistance where needed. The region facilitator may also connect chapters in her region with organizational resources such as the national coaching teams. The region facilitator communicates regularly with region volunteers and monitors progress to determine ongoing trends.

Time Commitment: Approximately 10-15 hours per week, varying within the academic year
Attend the region facilitator annual meeting
Participate in region volunteer development training
Attend the national convention & leadership conference

Outcome of Placement: The region facilitator will provide leadership and guidance to the volunteers and chapters in her region through understanding the needs of the chapters and connecting them with necessary volunteer resources. As a result, chapters will receive specialized services targeted to their specific needs and will be better equipped to address those needs and continually improve.
